

Cheshire Disability Services Kenya (CDSK).

Our partner, Cheshire Disability Services Kenya (CDSK), is offering Scholarships to needy Persons with disability under its “Work and Respect Programme”. The offer is only valid for applicants in various courses for May 2022 intake at Kasarani TVC and other partner institutions. The scholarship covers;

- Tuition fee
- Accommodation fees (for learners requiring boarding facilities)
- Funding to buy learning materials (This will be granted on a need basis and is not guaranteed)

The funding is available at all levels of Courses at Kasarani TVC, that is, Diploma, Craft Certificate or Artisan.

CDSK is committed to ensuring that beneficiaries get relevant attachment places and transition into employment (self-employment or otherwise)

For more information contact Kasarani TVC.
